BARINGA WINS PRESTIGIOUS COMMODITY BUSINESS AWARD 2016

London, 16th March 2017 – Baringa Partners, the specialist management consultancy, is delighted to announce that it has received the Market Policy and Advisory Award from Commodity Business Awards 2016.

“To receive this award is a great achievement for our team and is testament to our continuous commitment to delivering quality and excellence in our sector which underpins everything we do,” commented Dave Rose, Partner at Baringa Partners. “Within the commodities and energy space, we navigate clients through industry shifts, and advise at a number of junctions along the value chain in commodities, applying our knowledge of regulation, technology and commercial models to help clients to tackle some of their toughest challenges.”

Baringa’s Energy and Resources practice continues to grow, working across a diverse spectrum of companies and markets, helping clients across the globe through this unprecedented period of structural change and consolidation. The company continues to be the principal advisor in the energy industry for market policy and reform, financial regulations, working with industry, regulators and government.

Since 1997, the Commodity Business Awards have been rewarding excellence throughout the commodity supply chain in trading, risk management, structuring, finance, research, advisory, logistics, legal, and specialist technology.

This award demonstrates Baringa’s continuous drive and foresight in helping create a sustainable and secure market infrastructure for the future by delivering exceptional market policy and corporate advisory advice.
